Re: No. 13-1506 Curtis J. Neeley, Jr. v. Federal Communications Commission, et al.

Dear Mr. Neeley:

This will acknowledge receipt of your "Motion for Clarification of Final Order." The court does not provide the breakdown of votes on petitions for rehearing en banc to my office or to the public, and no action will be taken on your motion. You may assume that every active judge not shown as recused considered your petition.

I would note that when a petition for rehearing en banc is denied, any judge who voted to grant the petition can ask that their vote be shown. No judge asked to be shown as voting to grant in your case.

Sincerely,
Michael E. Gans
