RESPONSE TO RULE #11 SANCTION MOTION
“MOTION FOR SANCTIONS” BY Google Inc.

1. The Plaintiff agrees generally with the rational in Defendant Google Inc's Dkt. #36 “Motion for Sanctions”. The Plaintiff has no income and is almost as immune to monetary sanctions as Google Inc is to fiscal damages. This is the rational for greater than 11.6 billion in “exemplary” damages now requested to be assessed by a JURY due to the amount required to have any impact whatsoever on Google Inc profits and foreclose continued evil business practices for profit.
2. This District Court must either order this Plaintiff not to pursue Google Inc further for display of Plaintiff's naked female figures to the anonymous or Google Inc will face this claim again and again or over and over, if not repeatedly. The United States District Courts are not the only venue being pursued by this Plaintiff. The evil open “inter” network of simultaneous wire and radio communications will not exist for another generation or for much less as is hoped by this Plaintiff.
