

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS

CURTIS J NEELEY JR, MFA

VS

CASE NO. 5:09-cv-05151-JLH

NameMedia Inc.
Network Solutions Inc.
Google Inc.

RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
COMMUNICATED TO THE COURT AND EVERY
DEFENDANT PURSUANT TO LR 7.3

Plaintiff is not opposed to an extension of time to reply to respond to the summary judgment for liability of Separate Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC. The extension of time will not increase the distress of the Plaintiff. The most important issue of copyright violation by Separate Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC was ceased at the end of last month. Google Inc has stopped using <sleepspot.com> in “Adsense for Domains” pending resolution of this lawsuit. The party that NAMEMEDIA INC sold <eartheye.com> or that relied on purchasing a “Premium Domain” that was actually less than worthless will see it as a detrimental reliance on the value and uncontested ownership nature of the purported “Premium Domain” and this will not change. Additional time will not alter the facts that they knew the Plaintiff was about take legal action when NAMEMEDIA INC sold the worthless “Premium Domain” and additional time will not change the fact that this is now shown in the record. Separate Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC may well face Data Transfer Solutions LLC in Federal Court as well.

How much is a “Premium Domain Name” worth?

How much is a “Premium Domain Name” worth? A jury will get to decide and will let each current Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC, Google Inc and Network Solutions Inc know. This is short enough and plain enough that the severely brain-injured, pro se, plaintiff will not bother making it a motion and will simply advise the Court and each Defendant that giving Separate Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC additional time will not further offend the Plaintiff or alter the actions that have already occurred. This is so straightforward that the pro se Plaintiff does not believe a separate supporting brief is worth writing. Plaintiff would prefer spending time inquiring with Data Transfer Solutions LLC legal about how much they would value <eartheye.com> and re-branding their entire company and inquiring whether Separate Defendant NAMEMEDIA INC disclosed the prior ownership of the “Premium Domain” by the Plaintiff.

Respectfully submitted,

Curtis J Neeley Jr, MFA
