BUILDING FINE HOMES

At Cornerstone Concepts some of the dynamics of our business have changed over time, but our main objectives have remained constant. We design, build and sell carefully crafted "custom level" homes that are built with attention to detail by people of integrity and offered at a fair price.

REAL ESTATE SERVICES
(WITH A BUILDER'S PERSPECTIVE)

If you're considering buying or selling a home, we can offer an experienced builder's perspective to help you make wise choices throughout the process. Contact Steve and he'll put his more than 30 years of experience as a quality homebuilder and real estate agent to work for you.
