VS.

CASE NO. 5:09-CV-05151-JLH

NAMEMEDIA, INC.;

NETWORK SOLUTIONS, INC.;

and GOOGLE, INC.

DEFENDANTS

NOTICE OF APPEAL

The Plaintiff in the above action appeals the prejudicial judgments of Dkt. 209, Dkt. 267, and Dkt. 268 wherein various claims against Defendants Google Inc and NameMedia Inc were dismissed and the malingering Federal Communications Commission (FCC) was not allowed added. The United States Court for the Western District of Arkansas failed to address numerous 17 USC § 106A claims shown in material exhibits except with the outlandish rational that a distorted manner of displaying original, nude photographs against the wishes of the artist does not violate rights of the photographic artist or rights recognized in 1990 by 17 USC § 106A commonly called the Visual Artist's Rights Act. "Copyrites" were ruled to not apply to the Internet.

The obvious failure of the Federal Communications Commission in enforcing of the Communications Act of 1934 direction to regulate wire communications was not addressed as a result of the Dkt. 209 denial of joinder of the Federal Communications Commission though brought for timely addition. The United States Court for the Western District of Arkansas thereby used "Dennis Factors" to repeatedly violate the intent of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Respectfully Submitted,

Curtis J. Neeley Jr., MFA
